

Andrew Ferguson is a partner at Altman & Cronin Benefit Consultants, LLC. He is a Fellow of the Society of Actuaries, an Enrolled Actuary, a Fellow of the Conference of Consulting Actuaries, and an ACOPA member. Andrew has extensive expertise in the design, valuation and administration of retirement plans, including a specialty in retirement programs sponsored by law firms and other professional service organizations.

Andrew is immediate Past President of the San Francisco chapter of the Western Pension and Benefits Conference, Treasurer of the Governing Board of Western Pension, and is on the Leadership Counsel of ACOPA. He speaks regularly at conferences around the country, and has lectured at Stanford's School of Law. Andrew is a Phi Beta Kappa graduate of Washington University in St. Louis with bachelors and masters degrees in math.