

Patrick McFarlen, EKS&H

Patrick has nearly 20 years of experience in public accounting and business consulting. He assists public and privately held clients, including many owned by private equity groups (PEGs) with transaction advisory services and mergers and acquisitions. Patrick has extensive experience in business valuation, executive compensation, business transition planning, due diligence, estate and gifts tax planning, financial modeling, specialty tax, and other financial strategy and transaction services.