

Krista Henry, VP Client Services Executive, Lockton Companies

Krista has more than ten years of insurance and employee benefits expertise, providing strategic advice on designing, delivering and managing health and welfare benefit programs to align with each client's goals and objectives.

Her extensive consulting experience includes working with clients ranging in size from 250 – 15,000; including public and private sector, collective bargaining arrangements and pooled employer trusts.

Through her client relationships, she has been successful not only in providing strategic insight, but facilitating meaningful dialogue between an organizations key stakeholders, including senior leadership, human resources, finance, employee committees and bargained employees.

As a Client Service Executive, Krista is responsible for developing and maintaining client relationships, providing strategic guidance and oversight, and working with the service team to ensure exceptional service delivery.